The Stagg Street Studio is 1 block East of Sepulveda and 1 block North of Saticoy St., off the 405 Freeway (north of the 101) between Sherman Way & Roscoe.

If you are traveling North on the 405, take the Sherman Way East exit (the first of two Sherman Way exits) and turn right, going East, to Sepulveda (about 3 blocks).

At Sepulveda turn left, and go North for three traffic signals (about 7 blocks) to Stagg Street.

(There is a Western Bagel Baking Company on the corner.)

Turn right, going East. The Studio is the third building from the end of the block on the left, north side.

There is a chain link gate across the driveway.

(See below for addresses.)

If you are traveling South on the 405, take the Roscoe Blvd. exit and turn left, going East, to Sepulveda. (About 3 blocks.)

At Sepulveda, turn right, and go South for three traffic signals (about 7 blocks) to Stagg Street.

(There is a Western Bagel Baking Company on the corner.)

Turn left, going East. The Studio is the third building from the end of the block on the left, north side.

There is a chain link gate across the driveway.

The addresses, 15147 and 15145 are painted on a white block wall at the street. There is no other sign.

If the gate is closed, there is a red buzzer button in the gate post on the right side of the gate. A small red sign on the gate points to it.

If the gate is open, park anywhere you can, the spaces to your left or along the wall / fence on the right side.

The main entrance is the second (recessed) door on the left side.
